

Professional Staff

Catherine Moga Bryant joined the Division of Workforce Solutions as Director of Governance and Strategic Planning in February 2013 and was appointed as Deputy Assistant Secretary in 2015. Prior to joining the division she was a Principal Evaluator in the Program Evaluation Division at the North Carolina General Assembly. Catherine led the evaluation of the state's workforce system which resulted in legislation that strengthened the workforce development system by streamlining programs, enhancing accountability, strengthening the Career Center system, and directing agencies to use technology.

Catherine has also worked as Senior Research Associate at the North Carolina Rural Economic Development Center. Catherine has a Master's degree in geography from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a Bachelor's of Fine Arts from the University of Missouri at Kansas City. Catherine and her husband, Cameron, have three boys and she enjoys spending time at the playground, volunteering at their schools, and going to Durham Bulls games.

Executive Director

Catherine.MogaBryant@nccommerce.com

919-814-0318

Lynn Hayes has been with the Division of Workforce Solutions since 2008, serving as the administrative assistant to the director of Governance and Strategic Planning Unit and staff to the commission. Her current role is administrative assistant to Catherine Moga Bryant, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Workforce Solutions and Executive Director to the NCWorks Commission. She also supports Division Directors, Managers, and staff providing technical assistance with databases, office procedures, customer service, and many software programs. She has also been designated as the Records Liaison for the division.

Lynn has over 38 years of experience in administrative support and office management. In December, 2016 she earned her Associates Degree in Office Administration from Wake Technical Community College, and holds an Associate in Customer Service designation.

Administrative Assistant

Lynn.Hayes@nccommerce.com

919-814-0326

The following key liaisons are charged with providing strategic planning, research, subject matter expertise, and staff support to the NCWorks Commission and its committees.

Mical McFarland has been with the Department of Commerce since 2008 and provides policy, research, strategic planning, and staff support for the NCWorks Commission. He also works closely with the 23 local workforce development boards, serving as Quality Improvement Manager responsible for quality assurance and system improvement efforts to support consistent customer service throughout the state's NCWorks Career Center system.

Mical is a Certified Public Manager® and has a Master's Degree in Political Science from Western Illinois University with a background in economic and community development, serving in municipal government prior to his current role. He is also a former Peace Corps Volunteer having served two years in Moldova where he co-founded a youth development center helping underprivileged youth become contributing members of society.

Commission Staff

Mical.McFarland@nccommerce.com

919-814-0307

Annie Izod joined the Division of Workforce Solutions in December 2016. She supports the NCWorks Commission by conducting research, program evaluations, and strategic and policy analyses related to workforce and economic development in North Carolina. She is currently a PhD Candidate in Public Administration at NC State University, where her research focus is on program evaluation and performance measurement of networked organizations that work together to deliver public services. Prior to joining the division, Annie worked for eight years for the US Government Accountability Office as a Senior Policy Analyst working on a variety of issues including workforce development and homeland security. She holds dual bachelor's degrees in English and Political Science and a Master of Public Administration degree from Virginia Tech.

Annie.izod@nccommerce.com

919-814-0313

Callie Womble joined the Division of Workforce Solutions in December 2017. She supports the NCWorks Commission by conducting research, managing projects, leading strategic planning efforts, and organizing events and workshops for commission members and partner agencies.

Prior to joining the division, Callie worked in higher education administration for over seven years. She served in the areas of assessment, academic coaching, pre-college and new student programs, underrepresented student recruitment and retention, and student wellness. Callie earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in Public Health from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She also earned her Ph.D. in Educational Research and Policy Analysis from NC State University, and is the recipient of the 2018 NC State University Higher Education Dissertation of the Year Award.

Callie.Womble@nccommerce.com

919-814-0379

Quantesa Roberts joined the Division of Workforce Solutions in January 2018. She supports the NCWorks Commission by conducting research, managing projects, leading strategic planning efforts, and organizing events and workshops for commission members and partner agencies.

Prior to joining the division, Quantesa worked at RTI International as a Public Health Analyst conducting research evaluations for several federal projects related to Medicare and Medicaid. She has also worked in the areas of policy analysis, budget formulation, public affairs, and grassroots outreach. Quantesa has a Master's degree in Government from Johns Hopkins University and a Bachelor's of Arts in Psychology from Hendrix College.

Quantesa.Roberts@nccommerce.com

919-814-0430